

THE TRIBUNE.

Friday, June 13, 1902.

Neighborhood News. As Told by Our Assistant Editors.

Truxton Picnic July 26.

New Florence.

Mrs. Maggie Stout of Oklahoma is enjoying a visit with her parents.

Miss Ida Kallmeyer is visiting relatives in Rhineland this week.

Miss Emma Lewis is home from St. Louis, where she has been staying since the first of the year.

Oliver Taylor, who has been the operator at the depot at this place for some time past, has been transferred to St. Charles, and Leslie Downs now has charge of the station at this place.

Mrs. Clinton Diggs and daughter of High Hill were visitors at this place Monday.

Miss Flora Childs of Pendleton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. Taylor this week.

Mrs. Caruthers and children of Montgomery City visited her brother, Pate Young and wife last Saturday and Sunday.

Will Finley spent between trains here one day last week.

Miss Annie McClure, who has been with her sister in St. Louis the past six weeks, returned home Sunday.

A. S. Neal and little daughter Mary are enjoying a visit with relatives in Macon county.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. gave an ice cream social in Maplewood Park last Thursday night, which proved to be a very pleasant affair.

Dr. Stephens of Montgomery City attended the Coates sale here last Saturday.

George Hardy, a very pleasant young man of St. Louis who has been visiting relatives at this place, returned home last Sunday.

Mrs. John Lewis is in St. Louis this week with her daughter, Mrs. Edie Carter, who has been quite sick.

Miss Hulda Corvey, who has been visiting relatives in St. Louis, returned home Monday evening.

Henry Wagoner, north of town, has been shipping out a large quantity of baled hay this week.

PUELLA.

Big Spring

Mrs. Wm. Niedergerke is on the sick list this week.

Otto Dunard has returned from Madison and is working again for Julius Saak.

J. C. Whiteside is having a stone pavement built from his house to the store.

Chas. Meyers returned home from college Saturday.

Mrs. Max Kopp of Fairfield, Ill. was visiting her mother, Mrs. Chas. Niedergerke the past week.

Joseph Neidergerke and wife went to Montgomery City Thursday.

Albert Meyers left Tuesday for Illinois, where he went to seek employment.

Litt Baultman of Danville was in this place a short while Saturday.

Some from this place attended children's exercises at Mt. Pleasant Sunday eve.

The Loutre Bend and Big Spring Base Ball Nine played in Litch's pasture Sunday, the score running 29 to 18 in Big Spring favor.

Rev. Duncan filled his regular appointment at Liberty church Saturday and Sunday, quite a large crowd being present.

The weather turned much cooler during the last few days.

The wheat is ripening very fast in this neighborhood, the people can begin harvesting by the last of the week.

Will Davis attended children's exercises at Danville Sunday.

The Sunday School Convention will hold their institute at Liberty church, June 28 and 29.

TULIP.

McKittrick.

Henry Blankenship and wife of St. Charles were here Saturday and Sunday visiting friends.

Miss Minnie Kolger was in Rhineland Thursday.

Dr. Brashear of Case was here on professional business Saturday.

Miss Rosa and Alvina Richey returned to their home in St. Louis Saturday after spending a pleasant week her visiting friends.

Tom Cullom made a business trip to Rhineland Saturday.

A Schnell and wife went to St. Louis Sunday.

Rev. Quick from Rhineland will fill his regular appointment here Sunday evening.

Mr. Schnarr and wife of Walnut Grove was here last Friday, visiting A. Henzie and family.

Tom Cullom and wife went to St. Louis Saturday night. Miss Cullom went down to have her eyes treated.

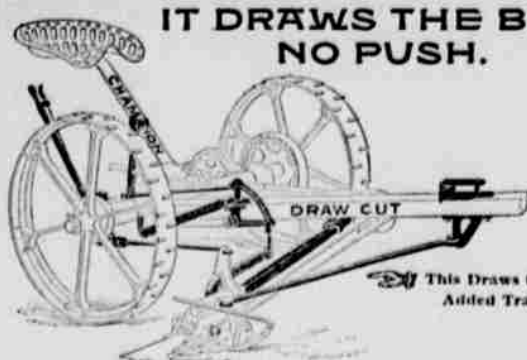

Mr. H. Linnert and son Frank and wife of Warrenton came up from Holstein Sunday and spent between trains here with Mrs. C. Farner.

Rev. Koeller was here Sunday and kindly invited the McKittrick S. S. at attend the boat excursion that is to be given by the Herman Sunday School, Saturday. Preparations are being made for all to have a good time.

Dr. Bess and A. Chiles drove over to High Hill and Pendleton Friday and returned Monday.

High Point.

Guy Kelson who formerly resided in this vicinity but lately has made his home in New Mexico was hurt in the mines at that place quite recently. His father was telegraphed for and as he has not returned we cannot ascertain how badly Guy was hurt.

THE WHEELS WILL NOT LIFT FROM THE GROUND.

MOWERS!

DO YOU NEED ONE?
Call And See Ours.

Farm Implements, all Kinds.

BUGGIES, SPRING WAGONS, SURRIES, ROAD CARTS AND ROAD WAGONS.

If you need any thing in this line come and inspect our stock.

A full Line of Hardware.
Repairs furnished for any machine made.

Figure with us on BINDER TWINE.

Our Motto is to Please.

HUPE & CLARE.

BELLFLOWER, MO.

Mesdames Frank Dillard and Bruce Erwing called on Mrs. J. L. Brown Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Barnes called on Mrs. Maggie Mitchell Tuesday.

Lennie and Willie Barnes visited their sister Mrs. J. L. Brown Tuesday.

Mr. White of near Calwood, traveling agent for a Chicago photo enlarging company is in this vicinity this week. He shows some fine work and received several orders near here. Mr. White stayed at T. W. Barnes Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Mitchell called on Mrs. Milton School Wednesday.

Sunday School was fine Sunday. Ernest and Leonard Force are visiting in this vicinity.

The Bethel Sunday School gave a picnic June 7. Plenty of dinner was served on the ground. One refreshment stand. Pieces were well rendered by Misses Ethel Walker, Daisy Harrison, Lena Clair and others. Rev. Bowles made a short address.

Your correspondent knows lots of news this time but guess I have had the floor long enough.

LAST WEEK.

T. W. Barnes and wife were shopping in Montgomery Tuesday.

We saw George Barnes and None Morris going west Sunday evening.

Lennie and Willie Barnes visited Elsie and Timion Ham.

John Ham has mashed his hand again.

John Mitchell while returning from Wellsville last Saturday drove into Loutre creek not thinking it was so deep when suddenly a large wave enveloped his team washing one horse under the tongue of his wagon. John managed to get one horse loose but the other with his wagon was carried down stream. After following some distance he succeeded in getting his horse out but not until it was almost drowned. John has spent some time gathering up parts of his wagon and has not recovered them all yet.

Mrs. C. L. Conley called on Mrs. T. W. Barnes Monday.

J. C. White and grandson Willard White made a business call at T. W. Barnes Monday.

C. U. GUESS.

Truxton Picnic July 26.

Bellflower.

Children's Day at Union Chapel last Sunday was a grand success. The children rendered their part of the program fine. There was a large crowd present and every body seemed to enjoy themselves especially the dinner. The collection amounted to $8.00.

Sam Hinton and family of near Middletown visited at Mrs. Bowls of this place last Tuesday.

Some from this vicinity went fishing last Tuesday hope they will bring us some fish.

Misses Earl Ingram and Ella Weaver of Truxton attended Children's Exercises at Union Chapel Sunday.

Messrs Clyde and Pearl Beck passed through here Tuesday, glad to see Clyde out again.

Hupe and Clare made some improvement on their store building last week by remodeling the porch.

Messrs J. W. Middlekamp, Henry Hupe, J. Perkins, Bailey Ball and Mort Kibler went to Kansas City Saturday, the Odd Fellows having an excursion to that place.

Sim West and wife returned here Saturday after a several months stay in Colorado. Sim's health would not permit them to stay in that climate.

WHIP-POOR-WILL.

Truxton Picnic July 26.

Mineola.

Miss Georgia Hays returned home Saturday from Warrenton, where she has been attending school.

W. C. Crane and wife spent Sunday night at J. G. Crane's at Williamsburg.

Miss Virgie See, after spending a few weeks in Montgomery City, returned home Saturday.

Scott Harrison and wife spent the first of the week here visiting relatives and friends.

Rodger See has the measles.

Miss Gussie Coen is visiting friends in town.

Miss Pauline Blades came over Saturday to visit her grandparents a few days.

Miss Leah McCarty is seriously ill with neuralgia of the heart. Hope she will soon improve.

Mrs. W. A. Graham and daughter took in the basket dinner at Antioch Sunday.

Miss Daisy Valentine of Marshall is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. E. White.

Joe Taylor and wife are visiting in town this week.

George Gregory attended the basket dinner at Antioch Sunday.

Rufus Taylor of Kentucky visited Dr. Huddleston's family this week.

Geo. Crane delivered lambs in Montgomery Monday.

Miss Alice Ingram visited her sister Blanch near Wellsville Sunday.

Powel Arnold united with the Christian church at Antioch Sunday.

Monta Muns and Manley Hudson of Montgomery City were here in town Monday afternoon on business.

Misses Emily and Martha Graham were the guests of the Misses Blades Monday night.

Dr. Muns and Emmett Lewis of Montgomery City passed through town Tuesday morning going over into Callaway county on business.

Jonesburg.

Emil Schafer bought himself a new spring wagon of H. M. Godfrey.

A. H. Drunert and Silas Carr were down on the River fishing last week they reported a good time and say they are going again in a few days.

Fleet Davis came through here on his way to St. Louis last week to buy goods.

Wm. Warner Jr. of High Hill was here on legal business last week.

H. C. Begeman and family were in the Truxton neighborhood visiting last Sunday and Monday.

Dr. Yocum is here at the National this week.

THE OLD RELIABLE.

FREE

a set of six high-art pictures, size 9 x 16 inches, reproduced from world famous masterpieces so faithfully that only an expert can tell them from original oil paintings. The coloring of the pictures are exquisite and the subjects desirable. Given free with each six months subscription to The St. Louis Sunday Post-Dispatch at the regular price, $1.00.

...SET OF... ART PICTURES

The great St. Louis Sunday Post-Dispatch contains besides the news sections, a regular 4-page magazine, illustrated in half tones and line cuts, and a 4-page children's wonderland, a wonderful pleasing supplement for children. 60 pages in all. Mail a P. O. money order to the Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, Mo., and get the paper six months and the pictures free.

The Great St. Louis Sunday Post-Dispatch
SPECIAL NOTICE. All Subscriptions sent on this offer must reach the Post-Dispatch office BEFORE JUNE 15.

New York Life Insurance Co.,

Why it's Policies are the Best.

- 1st. Incontestable from date of issue.
- 2nd. Non-forfeitable from date of issue.
- 3rd. Incontestable from date of issue.
- 4th. Loans at any time on demand after 2nd. year.
- 5th. Reinstatement within five years after lapse.

J. A. MAHERY, Agent,
Montgomery City, Mo.